

Butterfly

words and music by Alan Simmons

Butterfly,
Tell me where do you come from?
Butterfly, tell me where do you go?
Here today
But you're gone by tomorrow
And leave us the sorrow
That you'll never know.

Colour my wings like yours
And I'll fly to you,
Soft as silk and lighter than air,
Teach me to glide,
If I can float at your side
There will be no-one as happy as I
Butterfly!

Swallowtail, Tortoise Shell,
Grayling too,
Painted Lady, Skipper, large and small;
Meadow Brown, Red Admiral and Holly Blue,
Camberwell Beauty and all.
